

Student Blogs

Student Blogs

Gallena University takes great interest in what our students are doing outside of the classroom. Learn about their adjustments to college life, meeting new people, and some new locations to visit in Gallena. Many of our students take part in extracurricular activities, clubs and organizations, as well as community services. In addition, they reveal their tricks into how they juggle their busy schedules to reach their highest potential. Discover what's new for our students by following their blogs.

Here's a sneak peak from one of our students: "For those of you who think us college students spend all our time "partying", let me tell you the truth. There's a whole lot of studying going on around here right now, and very few parties! Yep, it's finals week. The time of the semester when I get little sleep, and my brain feels like it's going to explode."